Accreditation Statement

Pratt Institute is a coeducational undergraduate and graduate institution chartered and empowered to confer academic degrees by the State of New York. The certificates and degrees conferred are registered by the New York State Department of Education. Pratt is accredited by

The Middle States Commission on Higher Education
3624 Market Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104
267.284.5000

The Middle States Commission on Higher Education is an institutional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.

The School of Architecture's Master of Architecture program is accredited by the National Architectural Accrediting Board (NAAB). (For more information on NAAB accreditation, refer to the School of Architecture section, page 17.)

The Master of Science in Facilities Management is accredited by the Applied and Natural Science Commission of the Accreditation Board of Engineering and Technology.

The Master in Library and Information Science program is accredited by the Committee on Accreditation of the American Library Association. The Master in Art Therapy is approved by the Education Approval Board of the American Art Therapy Association, Inc., and as such meets the education standards of the art therapy profession. The graduate Dance/Movement Therapy program has been approved by the American Dance Therapy Association. Art and Design Education was accredited by the Teacher Education Accreditation Council in October, 2014 for seven years. Pratt is now part of a new accrediting body, the Association for Advancing Quality in Educator Preparation (AAQEP).
