

DIGITAL ARTS, BFA (INTERACTIVE ARTS)

Students use computer-human interaction to convey meaning in the form of physical installations, interactive objects, and online artworks. This includes the combination of video, animation, text, audio, and imagery in an interactive environment. Courses include graphics programming, interface design, interactive installation, robotics and physical computing, ActionScript, and more. Recommended electives include courses in sculpture, history of new media, video editing, programming, video installation, online media, electronic music, and audio editing.
