

CULTURAL STUDIES, MINOR

Cultural Studies is a foundational critical exploration of the social relations of cultural practices, everyday life, and material production. The courses in the minor emphasize strengthening student's understanding of critical inquiry, the dynamics of everyday life, and the application of rigorous critical social analysis in the study of the arts, sciences, social sciences, media, technology, and other systems of knowledge and power.

Minor Coordinator

B. Ricardo Brown, PhD
bbrow993@pratt.edu

Code	Title	Credits
SS-330	Cultural Studies	3
SS-430	Methods Of Cultural Analysis	3
SS-510	Controversies in Cultural Theory	3
Take 2 courses from the following electives:		6
SS-230	Sociological Theory
SSWI-233T	Violence As Politics
SS-290	Darwin, Marx, Nietzsche, Freud
SS-350	Technology and the Future of Work
SS-355	Mass Media and Society
SS-368	Language, Culture, and Discourse Theory
SS-369	Perception And Creativity
Total Credits		15