

FASHION, MINOR

The Fashion Minor enables students pursuing any discipline to gain a working knowledge and skill set in the practice of fashion design, with particular attention to collection development, construction, and an understanding of situating one's design of work in a larger sociopolitical and cultural context. Beyond the required core curriculum, minor students will be able to determine their own focus of further study within the medium by selecting six credits from a menu of electives.

Minor Coordinator

Tessa Maffucci
 tmaffucc@pratt.edu
 718.230.6874

Code	Title	Credits
FASD-121	Drape & Construct I	3
FASD-122	Drape & Construct II	3
FASD-217	Contextualizing Fashion II ¹	3
FASD-145	Contextualizing Fashion I	3
Select one of the following:		3
FASD-306	Advanced Construction Technologies
FASD-334	Leather Goods
FASD-364	Shoe Design And Embellishments
FASD-368	Experimental Surface Design
FASD-391	Accessories Collection
FASD-392	Fashion Business
FASD-393	Responsible Design
FASD-394	Intersections of Performance and Fashion
Total Credits		15

¹ Must take either FASD-217, FASD-317, or FASD-318 based on department recommendation.