TUITION AND FEES

The following approximate costs are in effect at the time of publication. They are subject to change by action of the Board of Trustees. The Institute reserves the right to change regulations at any time without prior notice; it also reserves the right to change tuition and fees as necessary. Tuition and fees are payable in full at the time of registration.

For a complete calculation of the cost of attendance, please visit: Undergraduate Cost of Attendance, 2023-24 Academic Year (https:// www.pratt.edu/about/offices/finance-and-administration/student-financial-services/estimated-costs/cost-of-attendance/)

Fees

Fees vary according to program. For a complete listing of fees, see the next page.

FEE REDUCTION FOR 100\% REMOTE STUDY

Students who study 100 percent remotely will not be charged the fees typically associated with on-campus living and instruction.

Books and Supplies

$3,000 per year, depending on the program.

Other Expenses

For resident students (students living away from home in either oncampus or off-campus housing), an estimated $$ 600$ per month (for a nine-month period) should be allowed for food, housing, clothing, and other personal needs. For commuter students (students living at home), an estimated $$ 250$ per month should be allowed for personal expenses and transportation.

Students provide their own textbooks and instructional and art supplies These books and supplies may be purchased either online or at local art supply stores. Bookstore expenses are not chargeable to the student's Institute tuition account. For those students who have a third party book voucher, they must purchase their books up front and provide the voucher with eligible copies of the receipt in order to be reimbursed.
